

THIS WEEK'S WRITTEN TASK

This week's written task is to write a powerful cinquain poem about life as a refugee. This could focus on a refugee's life in their home country or their new country.

Use your Global Work research for this week to help inform your ideas.

Examples of cinquain poems and exactly how to create one is fully explained here: <https://writeshop.com/writing-a-cinquain-poem/>

Follow the steps on the link above to help you to develop your best ideas and vocabulary.

Feeling Creative?

If you enjoyed writing your refugee cinquain poem, why not experiment with writing cinquain poems about other experiences, memories or even treasured possessions?