

English 26.5.20 Reading skills – inference from pictures. Your adult can read to you, but you could try to read it independently first. Then use the picture to help you to find the answer on your own.

Beach Picnic Scene

Who is building
a sandcastle?

Who is eating food?

Who is sitting on the picnic blanket?

Who is holding the bucket?

Where are the children?

Where is the seagull?

Where is the mum?

Where is the dad?

See answers on page below.

Answer: The children are building a sandcastle.

Answer: The lady and man (Mum and Dad) are eating food.

Answer: The lady and man (Mum and Dad) are sitting on the picnic blanket.

Answer: The child with the blue T-shirt is holding the bucket.

Answer: The children are near the sea/on the sand. (Pointing to the children is also acceptable).

Answer: The seagull is next to/in front of the picnic blanket. (Pointing to the seagull is also acceptable).

Answer: The mum is below the parasol/on the picnic blanket/to the right of the dad. (Pointing to the mum is also acceptable).

Answer: The dad is below the parasol/on the picnic blanket/to the left of the mum. (Pointing to the dad is also acceptable).