

Y5 English—Spare Week—Creative Writing Task

One day you're out walking with your pet dog when he stops and won't stop barking at something so you go and take a closer look. The dog has stopped a metre away from a large, smooth, pale coloured egg. As you edge a little closer, it begins to shake. All of a sudden, a crack appears down one side of the egg and before you know it... a small, dragon emerges from inside!

Dragon Egg Discovery!

Tell the story of you discovering the dragon's egg and it hatching from inside.

When the dragon is hatched describe in detail what it looks like. Its wings, body, skin, eyes, arms and legs.

Try to include:

- Expanded noun phrases
- Exciting vocabulary choices
- Parenthesis using commas, brackets or dashes
- Apostrophe's for possession
