

English 76

The image is a lesson card from BBC Bitesize. It has an orange header with the text '30 April: English'. Below the header is an illustration of an open book with a hand pointing to it, surrounded by decorative stars and a crescent moon. The main title of the lesson is 'Using inverted commas to show speech'. The text below explains that on 30 April, the focus is on identifying where inverted commas are used to show when someone is speaking. At the bottom, the word 'ENGLISH' is written.

30 April: English

Using inverted commas to show speech

30 April - To identify where inverted commas need to be used to show when someone is speaking.

ENGLISH

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/z4rbgwx>

Please watch the videos and have a go at the 3 activities. Resources for activities 2 and 3 are in this folder.